FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, October 1, 188. The usual amount of animation to mone ters which is always perceptible on the la of each month, was rather improved upon t day. Almost every other man we met had his collection book in hand and reported favorably. At our banks a very large amount of checking and depositing characterized the day, and collections, so far as, we could learn, were very good. Now that the new quarter is being entered into, and the quarterly statement, which will appear on Monday, are about made up, we may anticinate mure ease in the mar cet than we have enjoyed for a week or two Exchange upon the East in the way of cotton bills are abundant-more so than the de mand requires for mercantile purposes, and rates are tending downwards. Next week we think outlon exsisings will be taken at 15 dis-count on all Eastern cities. At present 5 discount is the ruling rate. Selling at 14 pressions. Gold opened in New York to-day at 1805, and med at 140%. We quote at 1385139 buying Solling at 140 141.

City Sonds are very quiet. 49c, the offering price from brokers, does not develop any round lets, though an occasional $500 or $10.0 warrant is sold at 40 g40%.c. Holders are firm at 50c. City Serip is steady. Buying at 72,873c. Sell-

County Warrants are firm. Buying at 51,85%; mato amount. Selling at 578602. Small pleces are firm at our outside figures. School Scrip steady at 62 9850 buying and sellolice Scrip firm. Boying at $0c. Selling a

COTTON.

The Liverpeol market was buoyant at the pening to-day. Uplands, 10142; Orleans, 05cd, and closed firmer but not quotable igher, with sales of 15000 bales. Upland-float were quoted in the noon dispatches at 9%4. This is an old dodge, and will hardly work as well as it did last year. The New York market opened with a moderate demand, an prices firm. Uplands, 20%c, and closed the same, though holders were asking an advance

This has been another unaccountable day in sur market. Buyers are very scarce, and the advance in the East on yesterday, as well as the tendency upwards quoted to-day had no effect on them. They would not advance their rates, but passed by what would at any other time be considered a "good thing." We quote as follows: 5 bales Ordinary, 20c; 1 at 2 lgc; 1 at fie; 5 at 10c; 5 Good Ordinary, 1850 1134e; 4 at 21e; 14 at 2134e; 1 at 21e; 1 at 21e; 9 a 21c; 10 at 21½c; 4 at 21½c; 4 at 21½c; 5 tow Middling, 21½c; 60 at 22½c; 6 at 22c; 15 at 22c; 1 at 22c; 25 at 22c; 4 at 22c; 2 at 22c; 8 at 22c; 8 at 20c; 8 at 23c; 5 at 225c; 17 Middling, 23c; 6 at 23c; 21 a 23: 1 at 25%; 25 at 250; 4 at 240; 2 at 230; 10 a 230; 1 at 25%; 4 Strict Middling, 25%; 9 at 240 COTTON STATEMENT.

CHANKER OF COMMERCE ook on hand Sept. I, 1868..... aved previously...

Steek on hand to-day, 6 p.m N. Coronna and A. Radgeski, Esqs., returned home on Tuesday, from their Summer tour. They are both well known as successful cotton sperators. Mr. R. has visited all the different parts of Europe since be has been absent, and returns home full of pleasant memories of the T. F. MACKALL, R. C. GIST. sperators. Mr. R. has visited all the different mes gone by, as well as ready to resume his place in line for the campaign.

There is a project on foot in some of the countries of Georg a which, it it can be successfully set on foot in all the countries not only in Georgia, but all over the South, will effective ally stop the game which speculators have been playing upon Southern planters since the war, especially last sesson, and which they are now trying to play again, by ruling down the price of cotton until they are negligible of the hands of the planters, and then selling it to the manufacturer at enermous profils.

The scheme, as explained by an intelligent eipt for the cotton, and see that it is propy stored and protected. Then, upon this aggate amount of cotton stored, let these gen ket price for his cotton and desires to sell, let the warehouse buy it, if the market price is for low, and it then becomes the property of the other planters of the association, and secones also a portion of the commism stock upon which this money is borrowed to supply the demands of the planters.

By this means it is thought planters will be enabled to hold their cotton for good prices, and instead of their labor being the sport and playting of speculators, it will rule and control them, if not shut them out of the maile: altogether; for if the entire cotton crops of councies can be thus collected in the hands of a few planters, they can soll directly to manufacturers and constinces of the raw material, and not a bale fall into the hands of speculators. The price will then be sottled between the producer and constincer of cotton, and the planter can dermand his price instead of being forced to take whatever is offered. When the question of price is settled between the producer and consumer, then, if the speculator wants to show his hand, and force the manufacturer to pay more for cotton than the planter asks, let him overbid the manufacturer, and he is then entitled to control the price, for the planter has fairly disposed of the right to do so. r the planter has fairly disposed of We believe that some such scheme as we have trol the price of his entron crop, which he surely has the right to do. By a private dispatch received this evening we learn that a disagreement has just occurred among all the railroad lines running west from New York city, and that freight is now being taken regardiess of fixed rates. Freights of al kinds will come to Cincinnatt and Louisville at lower rates than ever were heard of before How long the fight will last we do not know, but hope il may never cease. Our merchants should take auvantage of this war and get their stocks through as soon as possible. The jobbing trade was antive to-day but was ot well divided. Several neighborhoods seemed to have turned out in force, but it is well known that each neighborhood deals al-most exclusively with one or two merchants so that while one house may be actively en-gaged in filling orders its next door neighbor may be doing comparatively nothing. Mests retain all their firmness and are tending upwards. The cause sesigned is low stocks in the upper markets, where it is feared the supply will not hold out until the new hog crop comes in. Feed of all kinds is griling to be very scarce. Corn does not arrive in sufficient quantities to supply the local demand for feel-ing purposes, let alone to supply the call from ere to convert it into meal

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka clin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, cic., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect.
